Upon request

Plug

The refractory plug is made from a powder obtained by grinding the scraps of the rollers.
It is installed on the drive side to protect the mechanical parts. It can also be installed on the idle side, in which case it is provided with a vent hole.

Available upon request.

